

I strongly object to using cell phones while in flight. It is extremely dangerous and very annoying with someone talking on the phone while in flight. Voices carry throughout the plane. If a person would like to take a nap or read, it would be impossible to sleep or concentrate on reading. Surely these persons can wait until they get to their destination.

Thank you!